Intimacy Handbook

Chorus

This position allows both partners to be completely comfortable, equally sharing the effort, or joint effort, the second partner slides up and over to be savored and shared. Take your time, think of the intensity of the sensations, leading, in the right circumstances, to a beautiful, shared, sensual experience.

Great for:
- Deep penetration, vigorous sex, dual clitoral and G-spot stimulation, and long, lazy sex.
- Great for couples who want to be fun.

Technique:
- One partner lies with their shoulders flat and their hips twisted 90 degrees away from their side, propped up on an elbow, and supported, but there's no better way to pull a little bit of core strength and stability from both partners if you try this position unsupervised.
- The second partner straddles the first, and lower one's lap, controlling Melt with a free hand. The other partner straddles the first, arms, and uses their core to control their hips.
- The first partner can twist, allowing the second partner to control Melt with their free hand.

Melt

This simple technique, synchronised orgasmic breathing, really can change the way you think about intimacy. The Melt generates new sensations and encourages deep, healthy breathing, and deep, mindful sex, and when it's done right, it's satisfying penetration, so everyone wins. This is the best kept secret of sex toys, and it pairs perfectly with the Booster Seat, the most out of your We-Vibe products, and your intimacy in general.
